RE: Warner Chappell Music, Inc., et al. v. Mediostream, Inc., Priddis Music, Inc., ProSound Karaoke, D.J. Miller Music Distributors, Inc., Richard L. Priddis, Individually, and Dale S. Miller, Individually

Gentlemen:

This letter is written to inform you that I have been retained by Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., Warner/Tamerlane Publishing Corp., and WB Music Corp., ("Warner"), to represent them relative to their claims for copyright infringement and related matters against the above-listed entities. My initial information indicates the infringement of (at least) the songs identified on the attached two schedules, though the total number of songs ultimately being infringed by the Priddis defendants is certainly much larger and continues to be compiled.

The infringing activities include, but are not necessarily limited to, the unlawful replication of these compositions and their printed lyrics, in various Karaoke musical products including, but not necessarily limited to, CDG, CD+G, DVD and internet downloaded recordings. Most of the compositions were infringed with no license at all; others have been infringed by exceeding the scope of licenses issued to ProSound in the United Kingdom.

Based upon the foregoing matters which have come to our attention, please consider this a formal demand that you cease and desist any and all infringing activities and fully account forthwith for any and all uses made of any of the copyrights which are now the subject of my clients' claims for infringement. Kindly confirm in writing, by 5:00 p.m. Mountain Time on Wednesday, January 31, 2007, that each of you will immediately cease and desist your infringing activities and will, in fact, render a full accounting within 14 days from the date of this letter.

If I do not hear from you with such a confirmation by the close of business on Wednesday, your silence shall be construed as a refusal; as well, your actions will be deemed willful copyright infringement subject to the maximum statutory penalty of $150,000.00 per copyright, plus any and all legal expenses incurred by my clients including, but by no means limited to, all attorney's fees and costs. Additionally, I shall take all steps necessary and appropriate to protect their interests by placing this matter in suit and seeking immediate injunctive relief.

I must also point out to you that if you possess Commercial General Liability Insurance for these claims, including coverage for advertising injury, you should immediately contact your carrier. Also, please provide my offices with the name of your insurance company and any adjuster/supervisor assigned to the file. In this manner, it is possible these claims may be resolved amicably and I need not necessarily disturb you directly in the future. If you have any questions whatsoever about any of the matters contained herein, please feel free to contact my office at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

Paul Harrison Stacey
